Congratulations to John Hughes, Bd. 119, NY, who recently retired from Division I basketball officiating. John had an illustrious career that was highlighted by several appearances in the NCAA tournament advancing to the Sweet 16. He once officiated four conference championship games (American East, Northeast Conference, Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and the Patriot League) in one season. John was also responsible for ejecting the Temple Owl in a game played in 2001. He was also an outstanding baseball umpire officiating in the minor league and Triple A for many seasons.
